MILLIONS OF ASTOR.

Emery Heirs Seek a Big Share.

Litigation Started Scores of Years Ago by Will of John Jacob's Partner.

Oklahoma Man Arrives in Pittsburgh to Stir up Possible Beneficiaries.

Says He Was Followed by a Supposed Agent—Records Under Examination.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pittsburghers hope to obtain in the near future a large portion of the Astor millions, to which they assert they are entitled as heirs of John Emery, who was a partner of John Jacob Astor in their business. Abner Emery has arrived here from Lewistown, Okla., and will spend a week here in looking up the Emery heirs.

Litigation has been under way many years for the recovery of the money which the Emery heirs claim. John Emery was a partner of John Jacob Astor at Astoria, in what is now the State of Washington. Emery died eighty-five years ago, on shipboard, while he was on his way back to the East. He left a will, with instructions that it was to be probated seventy-five years later.

The estate involves the holdings of Astor heirs, it is alleged, and $200,000 besides, which was inherited by John Emery from his father in Germany. It is believed that the whole estate will total $180,000,000. So far as Abner Emery has been able to learn, there are about four hundred and eighty heirs to the estate.

John Emery was a bachelor, but had several brothers. Peter Emery of Seattle, Wash., is said to be a grand-nephew of John Emery. Peter Emery has five children, among whom are the Pittsburgh claimants to the fortune.

Abner Emery says that he has been followed to Pittsburgh from Oklahoma by a man whom he believes to be an agent of the Astors. In Pittsburgh, Emery says there are two persons who are entitled to a share of the fortune. They are George A. Emery of Kelley street, a conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and his sister, Mrs. G. W. Barclay, who lives at the same place. Abner spent several hours with them, going over family records and establishing connection with the deceased millionaire.

ROCKEFELLER IN HIDING?

INQUIRERS UNABLE TO LEARN HIS WHEREABOUTS.

Report Current in New York that Oil Magnate Has Gone to Europe Not Believed by Relative in Cleveland—His Testimony Necessary to Hadley for Completing Inquiry.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—John D. Rockefeller has not been here since September. Inquirers are unable to learn his whereabouts. George H. Hadley, Mr. Rockefeller's brother-in-law, received a letter from Mr. Rockefeller recently. Hadley says he does not believe Mr. Rockefeller is in Europe. Apparently, Hadley does not desire to say where Rockefeller now is.

ALSO REPORTED IN SOUTH. NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—A report was current last night that John D. Rockefeller had sailed for Europe January 6 to see his daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Strong, who is ill at Cannes, France. H. H. Rogers, however, said that he had heard from Rockefeller within the last week, and that he felt quite sure he was still in this country. At Rockefeller's home here it was said that he was in the South.

Follow-up from Cleveland recently have said that Atty-Gen. Hadley of Missouri desired Mr. Rockefeller's testimony in the oil inquiry, but had as yet been unable to get into communication with him.

Henry Williams, in whose law office Atty-Gen. Hadley of Missouri took his testimony in his proceedings against the Standard Oil Company, stated yesterday that he had no information as to when Justice Gildersleeve would announce his decision in the case, and that he had no information as to whether the case would be adjourned to February 12.

TESTIMONIAL TO HARPER.

Library to Cost at Least a Million Dollars Assured by Chicago University's Action.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—A library to cost at least $1,000,000, as a memorial to Dr. William Rainey Harper, late president of the University of Chicago, is assured. Members of the faculty of the Board of Trustees and alumni have taken decisive action.

LAKE FOREST SHORTAGE.

President Harlan to Resign from the University While the School Faces a Deficit.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A rumor which has gained general belief in Lake Forest University, that Richard D. Harlan, president of the Lake Forest University, will resign at the close of the present school year and another educator will be chosen to fill his place. Coupled with this rumor is a statement that the university is facing a deficit of $24,000. Of this sum, $21,000 represents the shortage for the present year, which has been one of the most disastrous and demoralizing in the history of the school.

For the first time in many years, Ferry Hall, known as the most exclusive school for girls in the West, has shown a deficit amounting to $5500. Three years ago Calvin Derrand offered $30,000 to the institution, with the proviso that President Harlan would hustle for an additional $20,000. This gift was on the verge of being lost when the trustees sprang in and raised the money.

NEED AMERICAN INTERVENTION.

DOMINICANS ADMIT POLITICAL CONDITIONS ARE BAD.

CAECERES NOW CONVINCED THAT MINISTER DAWSON HAS BEEN WORKING IN THE INTERESTS OF PEACE—MORALES SAYS SANTO DOMINGO'S NEED IS GREATER THAN CUBA'S.

SANTO DOMINGO, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Caeceres told a newspaper correspondent, today, that while, at the outset of the recent troubles, his party suspended communications with Mr. Dawson, the United States Minister here, for taking improper measures in favor of President Morales, he has since become convinced that Dawson acted wholly in the interests of peace, and that the attitude of all American officials during the outbreak was eminently proper. Dominicans would like to see the same policy displayed in the future. Gen. Caeceres thinks the Horacistas the only faction that is working for the good of the country.

Caeceres declared that Gen. Morales' downfall was due to his attempt to betray and disrupt the party, scheming to place all the offices in the hands of his political opponents, which brought about a condition near to anarchy. Morales has left the navy hospital and joined his family in Santure, a suburb of San Juan. He comments thus on Santo Domingo affairs: "The future of my country rests largely with the United States. Thanks to American intervention, which has given us honest administration, a worse financial situation has been avoided. It is sad for me to say it, but Santo Domingo needs American intervention as much as does Cuba."

GROVER NOT COMING.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is learned from an authoritative source, tonight, that the report that former President Cleveland would come to Albany, N. Y., to take up his residence there is without foundation. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland left here today for Albany, where Cleveland will deliver an address at the opening of the convention. Mrs. Ferrine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother, was seen tonight, and also said the report was without foundation.

POWER OF NIAGARA.

Central New York Manufacturers to be Run by It—New Long-distance Era.

PIEDMONT, N. C., Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Westinghouse Company of Pittsburgh was notified today that the Niagara Lockport and Ontario Power Company has made a contract to deliver power, generated on the Canadian side of Niagara Falls, to Syracuse, N. Y., by March 1. The distance is 160 miles, and the line is nearly completed.

The announcement marks a new era in long-distance power transmission. It means that the manufacturers of Central New York are to be run by Niagara's mighty current, and that probably its power will be even transferred to New York City.

A transmission line to Cleveland, 200 miles away, is now under consideration; also one to Toronto.

The Ontario Power Company has bought for its right of way to Syracuse a ribbon of land paralleling the New York Central. On towers along this way cables are carried in nineteen strands, 12,000 miles of wire and 90,000 horse-power can be sent to Syracuse. This line, for distance, is eclipsed only by the Bay Counties Company of California, but for amount of power it has no equal.

SAFETY OF INSURED.

Uniformity of State Laws Agitated.

Convention Meets in Chicago Thursday for Organizing Thorough Campaign.

POLICYHOLDERS SCORE IMPORTANT VICTORY IN NEW YORK SUPREME COURT.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S CONSENT TO SUITS NOT NECESSARY. HYDE OVERRULED.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Uniformity of State laws, rather than Federal control," will be the keynote of a great convention of insurance men to be held in this city, beginning next Thursday. Every State in the Union has been invited to send delegates, but judging from the acceptances, it will be largely a western affair.

The promoters of the convention have consulted the President and secured his ideas and policy regarding insurance. The commissioners were impressed by the fact that, under the Federal Constitution and in accordance with a United States Supreme Court decision, national control was on a shaky footing. It was then agreed that if national legislation was impossible, uniformity of State laws would be the next best thing, and this point will be pushed at the convention.

The conference will organize into a national association of State Insurance Commissioners. It will be an important event in the insurance world, although the commissioners have no discretionary power. They will formulate plans here, and return to labor with the legislators in their own States.

More than fifty delegates have accepted invitations, and out of the clearings for ideas, some definite plan is expected along which all will work.

POLICYHOLDERS' SUITS.

MADE EASIER BY COURT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Kellogg of the Supreme Court in a decision today opened a breach in the hitherto impregnable section of the insurance code behind which bulwark the great companies have been wont to shield themselves against litigious assaults of dissatisfied policy holders. Should his important ruling be sustained, it is likely to speedily double the development of the investigation begun by policy holders seeking redress.

Judge Kellogg overrules the demurrer of James H. Hyde to the suit begun against the old officials of the Equitable Life by Mary M. Young, a stockholder and policy holder. He upholds the right of a policy holder to sue without the cooperation and previous consent of the Attorney-General of the State, and dismisses Hyde's demurrer with costs. In Mary M. Young's suit, the plaintiff alleges that the directors had negligently and improperly performed their duty.

THE ARMSTRONG REPORT.

Senator W. W. Armstrong, chairman of the Joint Legislative Insurance Investigating Committee, said today that the report of the committee to the Legislature probably will be about seventy-five thousand words in length. That will be nearly three times as voluminous as the last report.

REFUSES TO ANSWER QUESTIONS.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—George S. Reynolds, the grain merchant who defied some days ago, refused to answer leading questions today during his examination before Referee in Bankruptcy Eastman. He stated that he declined to answer on the ground that his replies might incriminate him.

CLAIMS THRONE OF RUSSIA.

With Privation Making Her Almost Blind, Vermont Woman Gives Data to Substantiate Her Story.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Living in a half-rusted block, with privation making her almost blind, lives a white-haired woman, a claimant, through her husband, to the throne of Russia. She is "the Countess Eleanor," daughter of Sir James Davidson, and cousin of William E. Gladstone.

Her correct name is Mrs. Eleanor Fletcher Bligh Nicholas, as she married N. C. Bishop of New York, formerly an importer and later a banker and broker. He died and when she came to Montpelier she married Lucas A. Nicholas and it is through him that she claims she should be Czarina of Russia. His father's name was Anastasius Nicholas Pavlovitch and he, with his brother, were picked up on the battlefield during the Greek struggle for independence.

One boy took the name of Miller and became Congressman Lucas Miller of Oshkosh, Wis. He died last year. The other married Clara Langdon, daughter of a Montpelier millionaire, and his son married Mrs. Bishop. She asserts that he is today the rightful Emperor.

DISCUSS TAX PROJECTS.

ALGECIRAS (Spain) Jan. 29.—The Moroccan conference today was devoted to tax projects. The delegates found that they were not prepared to act definitely on Morocco's proposition for a large increase of duties without instructions from home, and therefore, the subject was laid aside until telegraphic responses to their inquiries are received from the various governments. Concerning the internal impost, the delegates preferred to have the details examined and reported upon by a committee before acting.

GOV. CARTER HAS HIGH FEVER.

HONOLULU, Jan. 29.—Gov. Carter continues to suffer from a high fever. It is thought his malady is either brain fever or typhoid fever. The Territory of Hawaii is now practically without a governing head, and will remain so until the arrival of Secretary Adkinson. It is understood that Mr. Adkinson left Chicago for Honolulu today.

year, bears the weight of his years lightly and is almost as popular with the people of Denmark as was his father. By the wish of his parents he was brought up with great simplicity, and his earlier education was obtained at the lower grammar school for boys until he was 10 years old, when he was sent to the Danish royal academy.

It was Frederick's curious fate to see his younger brother and his own son become reigning monarchs of Greece and Norway, respectively, while he himself was still an heir apparent. The new king has been highly popular since his accession to the throne. His bearing is stately and his manner quiet. He is noted for his culture and possesses many foreign distinctions. While seldom openly identifying himself with political questions, he has taken an active part in all public movements, and is a constant attendant at all important debates in the Riksdag. His interest in the army, of which he is inspector-general, is keen, and he has introduced several reforms which have improved the lot of private soldiers, as the result of which he is extremely popular with the troops.

Little can be predicted as to the new king's public policy and it is not known whether or not he will simply follow in the footsteps of his father.

NEW QUEEN VERY RICH. The new queen, Louise, is reported to be the tallest and richest princess in Europe. She is a handsome woman of the blonde type and reflects the beauty of her famous grandmother, Queen Marie of Sweden.

The quick taking away of the distinguished personality who has for so long been a center of interest not only in his own country, but throughout the civilized world, almost paralyzed the community and unnerved the business world of Denmark.

EVERY FLAG AT HALF-MAST. Every flag in the city is at half-mast; all places of amusement are closed and the people walk the streets as though they were passing through the chamber of death.

This afternoon, when the flag flying over the palace was placed at half-mast, the news spread from mouth to mouth. It was not believed by the great crowds which gradually assembled in the square in front of the Amalienborg Palace, but when news of the death of the king was confirmed, the people gave place to certain tears and dispersed in respectful silence, many baring their heads and saluting the palace as they went by.

King Christian appeared in his usual health this morning. After taking breakfast he held a public audience, which he has been his custom to do every Monday morning. The reception today was largely attended and His Majesty conversed freely and affably with a number of officials and other persons.

When the function was over the king, though appearing slightly fatigued, attended luncheon with the members of his family, among whom were the Dowager Empress of Russia, and his brother, Gen. Prince Hans. During the meal His Majesty complained of indisposition and was assisted to his bedroom.

A court physician was summoned, but by the time he arrived the king had collapsed. The physician used restoratives, but his efforts were useless and King Christian expired, almost without uttering a word, in the arms of the Dowager Empress and in the presence of the court physician and Prince Hans. Just as the king breathed his last Crown Prince Frederick entered the room and the other members of the royal family arrived shortly afterward.

Nothing is definitely known tonight concerning the arrangements for the funeral, and it will necessarily be some time before anything regarding the arrangements is officially announced.

CONDOLENCES POURING IN. Telegrams and cablegrams of condolences are pouring in tonight, including messages from all the sovereigns of Europe and the Danish colonies.

Premier Christensen tonight tendered the resignation of the Cabinet to the new king, who expressed a wish that the present ministry should continue to carry on the affairs of the government. Both houses of Parliament will assemble tomorrow, when their respective presidents will formally announce the death of King Christian.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the members will assemble in the hall of the Folketing to receive the royal message announcing the accession of Frederick the Eighth.

It has been known for some time that King Christian's health was failing. It was his intention to go south in the near future, accompanied by the Dowager Empress of Russia.

So totally unexpected was the death of the king that many members of the diplomatic corps at first refused to believe the news. The Russian minister to Denmark, who had attended the audience in the forenoon, was called on the telephone by the Russian minister at Copenhagen and informed of King Christian's death, to which he replied:

"It is not true. I have come directly from the palace." The minister declined to believe the news until he verified it by again visiting the palace.

The king died in the small and plainly furnished bedroom facing the palace gardens, which he had occupied for many years. When the attack came on, His Majesty declined other assistance than the mere loosening of his uniform.

His face in death bears a peaceful expression. The aide-de-camp of the late king and the gentleman-in-waiting are keeping watch tonight in the death chamber.

and found to their gratification that each visit to the Danish court not only proved to be a large financial saving to themselves, but a most pleasant outing, exempting them from the restraints of official etiquette. The visits became an annual institution, were initiated by other rulers, and thus developed into a well-defined custom, that did more to bring about a feeling of goodwill among the courts of Europe than any other single factor.

King Christian's long reign of forty-two years was marked by a good deal of trouble. In the very year after his accession a family dispute over the duchies of Schleswig and Holstein involved him in a war with Prussia and Austria, whose forces invaded Schleswig in 1864, and after an obstinate resistance occupied Jutland. In the result King Christian was compelled formally to renounce all claims to Schleswig, Holstein, and Lauenburg, now parts of the German empire. The bitterness over this loss of territory has not even yet passed out of Denmark. On the restoration of peace the country was torn by political factions. The king, in conjunction with a minority of his subjects, was in open conflict with the parliamentary majority, and was more than once obliged to dissolve the chambers in order to carry out, with the aid of an unpopular ministry, the measures that he deemed best for the welfare of the country. However, gradually the king won his way to all hearts by the kindness and courtesy toward individuals that became the most prominent trait in his character. He gave free scope to the industrial development of his people, largely at the expense of his own pocket, and agriculturists in dairying, poultry raising, the rearing of cattle, etc.

His domestic life was the happiest of his reign. He was married in 1870. Married in 1870. From their golden wedding, a celebration which was celebrated in a single building, the king and queen have lived in the most intimate and happy of domestic life.

There, he continued, "was a rather bad attack of malaria shortly after reaching the isthmus. There was an epidemic of yellow fever when I arrived, but it was suppressed. The sanitarians have driven it out, I believe."

"I believe malaria on the isthmus is a very bad, it is a common disease, and, of course, immunity is not acquired. It is not so severe, however, as the malarial fever which is common in the Western States, such as Michigan and Illinois, when they were first opened up."

LABORERS AND WIVES. Gov. Magoon said that there are now about fifteen thousand laborers and their wives and families in the canal zone. In reply to a question concerning the efficiency of the civilian police, the Governor said: "I have no hesitation in saying that there is not a house of public gambling or of ill fame in the canal zone; there have not been any such, nor will there be."

"The stories concerning the 280 Martinique women now in the zone are discredited by the conduct of the women themselves. They have been watched by the police all the time since they arrived. There have been no arrests and no complaints about them. Of the whole number, 160 are living with men whom they declare to be their husbands. They are attending to their ordinary household duties, as would women in their own class in any peaceful community. The majority of the remaining 120 are employed as domestic servants in the households of residents of the canal district. Some of them are in the employ of clergymen."

HOUSE FIXINGS. Gov. Magoon was asked about the reported importation into Panama, at the expense of the United States government, of silver candleabra and other one house fixings. "The Panama Railroad commissaries import and sell such things as they desire to handle," he said. "They are not bought with government money at all. There is no doubt that they import 1600 suit cases. If anything is needed in that country to pack things in, it is suit cases. People wear collars, cuffs, and neckties there as elsewhere, and they are to be bought, as are perfumes and the like."

WORK ON CANAL. "Regarding the work on the canal, I can only say that it speaks for itself. That is outside my province. The men are all busy. They are paid from 14 to 25 cents an hour. The men are housed in clean barracks, with 500 cubic feet of living space for each man. From twenty-five to thirty negroes are housed in one building. More white men are allowed in a single building, but the buildings are larger. They sleep in sanitary cots, some of them double-deckers. The floors in the new buildings are all water-tight, most of them being of cement."

"It was necessary at first to use the old buildings used by the French. They were first repaired, however. More new barracks are going up all the time, and it will not be long before the old ones will be abandoned."

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With no cold waves in sight, adventurous individuals who have hazarded money that January in Chicago will be unmarked by zero weather are preparing to collect their wagers. Some of the freaks of this midwinter month noted today were: Pussycats in blossom near Chicago; grass turning green in spots in the parks; the coal man "sore"; the ice crop short; building operations coming on. February, however, may make up for January's salubrity, as that month has a Chicago record of 21 days below zero. The mercury today ranged from 32 to 48 degs. Middle West temperatures:

Develop Good Speed.

Probably the most novel vehicle ever seen on the tracks of the Southern Pacific is gasoline motor car No. 5, which was given a thorough try-out yesterday morning and afternoon prior to being placed in regular service between Los Angeles and suburban points.

Both in the Arcade depot and among spectators along the way to and from Santa Monica, San Pedro, Santa Ana, and Emeryville it created wide-spread interest.

Southern Pacific's new gasoline motor ready for the trial run to Santa Ana yesterday.

Following a thorough overhauling after its recent long trip overland from Omaha, the car was run out of the shops of the Southern Pacific and down to the Arcade depot for the first time yesterday, to take a party of traffic, operating and mechanical officials over the road for a trial spin.

Those to make the first trip were: Charles S. Fee, passenger traffic manager, of San Francisco; Thomas A. Graham, assistant general freight and passenger agent; Superintendent H. V. Platt, Assistant Superintendent of the Southern Pacific; Superintendent of Motive Power P. Sheedy; J. B. Finley, master car builder, and W. R. McKen, general superintendent of motive power of the Union Pacific, and the designer and builder of the car, who came to see that the car was given a proper initiation.

The first trip was to Santa Monica and San Pedro. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon another run was made from the Arcade depot to Emeryville and return, beating the regular passenger time back by fifteen minutes. Both performances were eminently satisfactory. While no attempt was made of speeding, it developed a rapid gait, and out on the line held close to a fifty-mile clip with ease.

As has been described more at length in these columns, the line of design of the body of this car is similar to that of a racing yacht inverted, the front end tapering off into a sharp line of cleavage, and the roof being rounded off from the top, presenting nothing but clean cut curves to the resistance of the atmosphere, and with a blunt rounding off behind to prevent the forming of a vacuum at high speeds.

The car, which has a seating capacity of fifty-seven persons, is equipped with two four-wheel steel trucks. The forward truck is geared to the six-cylinder, automatic starting, 100-horse-power gasoline engine located forward in the engine's cab.

Of steel construction throughout, the new car is of remarkable strength, and yet with a total of about 64,000 pounds, is astonishingly light in weight.

The engines used in this car were used originally on a torpedo-boat destroyer, and made a trip across the briny to the Russian navy yards at Sebastopol, after the return of the destroyer, the engines were removed and placed in the motor car. They then made the trip across the continent without a breakdown.

The car is elegantly furnished, the seats being upholstered in leather. At one end is a toilet room, and ice water tank. The ventilation is perfect. Fresh air is drawn into the car through the body beneath each seat, and by suction drawn out through the ventilators in the roof, completely changing the air every five minutes.

A crew, including the engineer who brought the coach from Omaha, a pilot familiar with the road, and a conductor, had the car in charge, yesterday, running on regular train orders. The motive power department sent out a number of student mechanics to learn the operation of the gasoline engine.

It is not yet definitely decided whether this first car will be put into service first on the Pasadena run or on the Long Beach and San Pedro run. It soon will be sent out every day to make the place of some light local train.

FAST RAIL LAYING.
In speaking of the construction work on the Bullfrog branch of the Salt Lake road, T. C. Peck, assistant general passenger agent, who has just returned from a trip over the line, says the track laying is being pushed forward with marvelous rapidity.

The rails are being laid by use of the latest models of track-laying machines, and like clockwork the engine pushing the machine before it advances a rail length, or thirty feet, every two minutes. The rails are being laid at the rate of almost two miles daily.

PRESIDENT MELLER HERE.
C. S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, is here with six other eastern railroad men as they are traveling in Mr. Mellen's private car, and have just come from Mexico. They will go North in a few days, then East.

"We are going on with the work of providing electric power for our trains out of New York City," said Mr. Mellen last night. "By the New York State law we must abandon steam power south of the Harlem River after January 1, 1908. Traffic conditions are congested, and the smoke nuisance has become a serious one, so the change is necessary. It would not pay to run up from Forty-second street on electricity and then change over to steam at Harlem, so we are going to continue the electric service out about twenty-five miles to cover the local traffic. The work is costing about $125,000 a mile, but of course the initial expense is heavy. We expect the running expense to be less than steam. At present the power will be generated by steam, but we have bought water-power sites in the New England States, and may use them later, when the range of the electric is farther east."

"Although we have been forced into the change, I believe it will not be long before the entire road is under electric power. I believe thoroughly in electricity. It is cheaper, cleaner, and more easily handled. The change will not come all at once. It will come. The conditions are different with us than here. We do not have to compete with the electric, and so we are not forced, except by the State law, but the change will come. "No, we have considered the use of gasoline motors, but we discarded them. At best they are only temporary. The real power of the future is electricity, and if you are going to change, why do it by two moves?"

THREE OF TRAIN
CREW KILLED.

GREAT LOSS RESULTS FROM COLLISION IN ILLINOIS.

Engineer's Mistake Costs, Besides Lives and Injuries to Seven Passengers, Four Cars Burned and Three Engines Demolished—Fireman is Killed by Exploding Boiler.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
TOPEKA (Kan.) Jan. 29.—Train No. 8 of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, the Colorado and Chicago passenger, met freight No. 23 in a head-on collision at 5:25 this morning one-half mile east of Edselville, Ill., a station 142 miles west of Chicago.

The property loss was great, three express cars and one freight car were burned and three engines demolished. Three of the train crew were killed and three others badly injured. The passengers escaped without serious injury, save four. That a greater loss of life did not result is solely due to the fact that neither of the trains was traveling at a high rate of speed when they met.

The dead:
ENGINEER SHEA of No. 8.
FIREMAN COGGINS of the freight.
SHANTWAN HOTLEF of the freight.

The injured:
George Hanover, fireman of No. 8; badly bruised.
W. D. Dates, engineer of freight, badly bruised.
Express messenger, name unknown; left leg cut off.
Albert Wyre, right side bruised; Denver.

J. W. Morrissey, neck sprained; New York City.
F. S. Burr, Wichita, Kan.; neck sprained.

J. E. Howard, Wichita, Kan.; neck sprained.
No. 8, which was east bound for Chicago, had instructions to wait and meet freight No. 23 at Edselville. As the passenger train pulled into the station, a freight, No. 23, was on the siding waiting to pull out when the passenger had gone into the station. It is presumed that Engineer Shea of the passenger mistook the waiting freight train for No. 22, which had not yet arrived.

LET BOILER BLOW UP.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
TOPEKA (Kan.) Jan. 29.—Engine No. 475 of a through freight of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, blew up last night two miles east of Bellefont, Kan., killing J. M. Sheldon of Oklahoma, the fireman George Plumb, the engineer, escaped unhurt. Plumb permitted the water in the boiler to get too low. Bellefont is a station between Kinsley and Dodge City on the main line.

senger was delayed eleven hours by the wreck. Eight cars are in the ditch. No one was injured.

While memorial services for Mrs. Beesie M. Hollister were being held in Chicago Sunday one man was killed and another fatally wounded in two encounters.

Classified Liners

Times "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1933, the rate for Sunday "Liner" was raised to 10 cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1925, the Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1 1/4 cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge 25c.

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday night will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy of answers to inquiries, or responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephone advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in the Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday night. Rate 1 1/4 cents per word.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

DR. AND MRS. WALTER JARVIS BARLOW of South Figueroa street entertained at dinner on Sunday evening in compliment to Fernand Langren, the artist, and his pretty young wife, who are to leave about March 1 for Santa Barbara. There they have purchased a country place of seven acres. They are planning to build an ideal home. This place is but a short distance from Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Edward White's home, and as the Langrens and the Whites are soon friends it will prove a congenial neighborhood.

Sunday afternoon, the bungalow home of Mr. and Mrs. Langren was the scene of a gathering of a large number of their friends, at the farewell tea given by the couple. The studio and winding porches were glowing with a riot of yellow blossoms. A number of women friends assisted in pouring tea.

Mrs. Walter Jarvis Barlow left yesterday morning for Mexico, where she has gone for a month's trip.

Mrs. Maier's Luncheon.

Mrs. Fred Maier of Hobart boulevard was hostess on Saturday at a luncheon given in honor of Miss Louise Leszynski and Miss I. M. Dodge, who are the guests of Mrs. Charles R. Hadley of Wilshire boulevard. Mrs. Maier has been entertaining as her guests for the past few days, Misses Anne and Margery Ida, daughters of Acting-Gov. Ide of the Philippine Islands. The Misses Ida were school friends of Mrs. Maier. They have traveled with the Taft party and Miss Alice Roosevelt. While with the Taft party the Misses Ida were presented to the Empress of China. They intend going east later to attend the Roosevelt-Longworth nuptials. Sunday they left for Santa Barbara where they will remain for a few days.

Yerxa-Roseberry Engagement.

"On St. Valentine's night at 9 o'clock, to be married, Mabelle Yerxa and Stewart Roseberry." Thus read the clever little cards in Raoul's cipher which guests at the little afternoon function given by Miss Mabelle Yerxa at her home on Melrose avenue, were requested to decipher. These were the place cards and on ter, Rev. W. C. Bowman officiated. About two hundred friends and relatives witnessed the service, which took place beneath a bower of greenery and white carnations.

The wedding party came down an aisle formed of satin ribbons held by Raymond and Edward Curtis, brothers of the bride. Misses Marguerite Goodall and Hazel West, frocked in white, came first, followed by Rose B. Marsh, the best man, Mrs. C. W. Curtis, who acted as matron of honor, and the bride. The bride wore a white chiffon over silk and she carried white hyacinths. Little Miss Embroidery bore the ring aloft in the heart of a snowy rose. The bride wore a handsome gown of white silk with lace trimming and orange blossoms were in her hair. Her bridal bouquet was of white hyacinths.

Later a reception was held. The couple left for a honeymoon trip after which they will make their home in this city.

To Wed in March.

Miss Clara Milner, daughter of Mrs. John Milner of West Washington street, and Frank McDonald have decided on March 7 as the date of their wedding, which is to be a home affair.

Mrs. McFarland's Guests.

Mrs. Dan McFarland of West Twenty-third street will have as her guests today a dozen women friends, who play bridge. The guests will be first entertained with luncheon and then to the game.

Dr. Douglas Will Wed.

Dr. C. W. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Douglas of No. 1131 West Seventh street, left yesterday for Provo City, Utah, where he goes to claim as his bride Miss Florence Sutton, daughter of Mrs. E. Sutton of that city. The family to which the bride-to-be belongs is prominent, and the wedding will take place tomorrow.

Immediately after the wedding breakfast the couple will leave for Los Angeles, here to make their home. They will be at home 815 Kip street until the handsome home on Vermont avenue, which the groom is building, is completed.

Dr. Douglas has lived here with his family nearly all his life, and is prominent in social and business circles. He Twenty-third street. Mrs. Winters is the contralto and choir director of the First Congregational Church of Denver. She has a three months leave of absence and will return home next month. It was a Chinese evening. The house was decorated with scores of small Chinese lanterns, paper balls of various colors and pieces of red paper adorned with Chinese characters in black lettering, giving the Chinese New Year greeting of good wishes. What was the game of the evening, the score cards were in the colors, red and green adorned with Chinese figures. The lady's first prize was won by Mrs. M. E. Downing; consolation by Mrs. J. P. Yates; gentlemen's first prize by J. B. Abby; consolation by Henry Weber. Especially enjoyable were the songs rendered by Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Frank Bryson and Miss Hazel Bryson. A buffet supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Abby, Mr. and Mrs. Will Altner, Misses M. E. Downing, of a family, Nettle Bryson, Florence Peck, N. E. Bryson, Miss Hazel Bryson, Messrs. George Eugenio, Harry Harris, William Woodworth, Joe Bryson, Frank Beaver and Albert Bryson.

Lester Robinson Weds.

Lester Robinson and Miss Mary Barwell were married yesterday at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, San Francisco on February 4. Mr. Robinson is well known in official circles, being a Fire Commissioner. He by her mother, Mrs. L. W. Leighton, and Miss Sigler.

Surprise Mr. Kornblum.

Mrs. Gus Floersheim planned a jolly surprise party for her brother, A. H. Kornblum, on Sunday evening, the affair taking place at the home of Mr. Kornblum's parents at No. 816 East Washington street. About fifty guests assembled at the home and later in the afternoon the party adjourned across the street to the Kornblum Hall, which was hung with smiles and bright postals, and there the merry guests danced. Later a supper was served.

G.O.P.-Philonthes Luncheon.

Miss Minnie Porter was the surprised guest of honor at a luncheon given by the G.O.P.-Philonthes at the home of Miss Fannie Lange, No. 151 West Seventeenth street. The event was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Porter, who will return to her home in Fullerton upon her graduation from the Normal School the first of February. About twenty-five girls were present. Much merriment was evoked by a class paper written by one of the members of the class. Each girl was told in a prophesy what her life is to be twenty years hence.

Notes and Personal.

Miss Beale Ellis left a few days ago for Bouquet Canyon where she has gone to visit her sister, Miss Katharine Ellis. Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter F. Zombro are now living in Los Angeles and are one side was the key which read: "O love, be moderate, stay thy ecstasy, in measure rein thy joy, scant this excess, I feel too much thy blessing, make it less For fear I surfeit."—(Shakespeare.

From this pretty verse the cipher was made out and the blushing little bride-elect was showered with the congratulations of her surprised friends. Though it was suspected that in the near future the engagement might be announced, the friends had not suspected so early a marriage.

Miss Yerxa is a delightful girl. She is a member of the Alpha Rho sorority. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Yerxa of Minneapolis, who make their winter home here on Melrose avenue. They are prominent in the social life of Minneapolis and for the past four or five years have been interesting additions to Los Angeles social life. Mr. Roseberry is from Chicago, where his father is president of the Franklin Life Insurance Company, one of the largest there.

Saturday afternoon the hostess was assisted in her announcement party by Mrs. Charles Yerxa, Miss Myrtle Yerxa and Miss Clara Whitney. The afternoon was spent in guessing games and later a luncheon was served from a table decked with great golden oranges and garlanded with soft ferns, producing the colors of the sorority, gold and green.

Miss Yerxa has chosen as her maid of honor, her twin sister, Miss Myrtle Yerxa, and Ruby Rose, a cousin of the groom, will be best man. As all the Alpha Rho sorority girls were anxious to take part in the pretty ceremony, Miss Yerxa has arranged that these girls all frocked alike in white shall bear aloft fairy arches of greenery and wedding bells through which the bridal party will approach the altar. Dr. Hugh E. Walker will officiate and the wedding will be one of much interest to a large circle of friends.

Curtis-Porter Nuptials.

A pretty home wedding which was solemnized recently was that of Miss Beale Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Curtis of No. 423 South Princeton avenue, and Clyde L. Porter, a graduate of the Northwestern University, and also took a course in Berkeley, and studied in the real estate business with his father.

For Westcotts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Westcott of Geneva, O., were guests on Saturday evening at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kroy of No. 1271 Hobart street. Smilax, asparagus and ferns were effectively arranged in the dining-room and crystal and silver candelabra with red shades added to the Bachelors' Dinner.

Phineas Newmark was the guest of honor at a bachelors' farewell dinner rendered him by Messrs. Aleck Brownstein and Eugene H. Roth at the Angelus Hotel recently. The table was decorated with garlands of smilax, and in the center of the table was placed a violet embankment representing an altar in which stood a miniature bridal party. Mr. Newmark is to be married in San Francisco on February 4. The bride will be Miss Elsie Hochheimer, one of San Francisco's most popular and favorite society belles. Mr. Newmark is a popular business and clubman. Among those present were Messrs. Samuel M. Newmark, George Goldsmith, Charles Duconot, Harry Harris, Jake Cohn, Leopold Jacoby and Joseph Laventhal.

Miss Dorsey Sets Date.

Miss Jane Dorsey, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Dorsey, whose engagement to William Richards was recently announced, has chosen February 15 as her wedding date. The nuptials will be celebrated in Christ Episcopal Church of Redondo. Mrs. Harry Almsworth is to be matron of honor and the maids are to be Misses Isabel Bullock, Edith Kirkpatrick, Mary Belle Elliott and Mary Mullins. Preston Smith will act as best man and Dr. J. M. Radebaugh and Messrs. Harry Almsworth, J. Harrison Wright and Joseph Easton are to be ushers.

Miss Rice Engaged.

Mrs. Augustus Rice of Colorado Springs announces the engagement of her daughter Miss Rose Rice to J. J. Gans of this city. Mrs. Rice and her daughter and Mr. Gans will receive their friends on Sunday, February 4, at Hotel Hogan, No. 715 West Eighth street from 2 until 5 o'clock. No cards have been issued.

For Mrs. Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Broodren of No. 1466 West Twenty-second street, on Friday evening entertained a family party in compliment to their cousin Mrs. Ella Bryson Winters of Denver, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Bryson of No. 225 East is also secretary of the Hughes Manufacturing Company. His bride is a charming and pretty girl, and it was the desire of the couple that none should know of their marriage. Only members of the two families were present. Dr. Robert McIntyre officiated. The bride wore a traveling suit of green, with hat of velvet and ermine with plume to match. She was attended by Miss Genevieve Robinson, sister of the groom. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barwell of No. 423 South Olive street. Mr. Robinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Music Reception.

Mrs. M. M. Gleason of No. 2729 West Pico street was at home about thirty of her friends on Friday evening. Prof. Irwin, recently from London and Boston, rendered several piano selections. Clara Cardell sang "Hosanna" and "Ave Maria." Miss Marguerite Cardell presided at the punch bowl. The hostess was assisted in receiving with Mrs. Zombro's parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Bicknell of No. 419 North Broadway. Mrs. Bicknell and Mrs. Zombro are at home the second and fourth Mondays in each month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Winn of Los Angeles are guests at the Mexican Gulf Hotel at Pass Christian, Miss., for the winter.

George Fuesnot, R. E. Barry and J. Bartlett of the A. F. Fuesnot Company left last week on a business trip to New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Milbar Johnson, with their two little daughters, have returned to Hotel Coronado for the winter.

George D. Hope, a wealthy lumberman of Kansas City, and his beautiful young wife are at the Angelus for a few weeks.

The social that was to have been given by the Women's Union of the Temple Baptist Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Friday evening, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the illness of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette.

Mrs. George W. Sweeney, who has been visiting Senator and Mrs. Morehouse in San Francisco, returned to her home yesterday.

Have You Been to Glendale?

THE COMING SUBURB OF LOS ANGELES

In the beautiful and romantic valley of San Fernando lies Glendale, the most charming suburban town in the world. A progressive, yet quiet, restful location with a population of a nice class of people, with churches, schools, sanatorium, modern conveniences, mountain water, and the best electric transportation system. The Huntington Electric cars make the trip from Los Angeles in 25 minutes, passing scenes of rich pastoral beauty to the very edge of the Verdugo Hills. Here on high, slightly, level land, the most healthful foothill section in the world, lies the

The Glendale Boulevard Tract fronts a boulevard 130 feet wide that is now being graded, oiled, curbed, cement sidewalks being laid, palm trees planted, as well as ornamental cobbles gates being erected at each crossing. This is undoubtedly a magnificent location for a home. The boulevard will extend from the foot of Verdugo's highest point to the Los Angeles River, a distance of four miles, making one of the most magnificent drives in Southern California.

Climatic conditions are perfect, the air having a delightful refreshing quality. There is no better remuneration as to the health-restoring possibilities of this favored section than to state that here in Glendale is located a branch sanatorium of the Battle Creek Sanatorium. At an elevation of 900 feet Glendale is removed from the dampness and fogs of other suburban towns of Los Angeles, and has an atmospheric condition peculiarly adapted to the healing of bronchial troubles, nervous diseases, etc.

Mr. Albert Dow, the owner of the commodious home in the illustration above, is one of the oldest settlers in the foothills of Glendale, close by the Glendale Boulevard Tract. Mr. Dow selected this spot after traveling for a year through California in quest of a home. In Mr. Dow's opinion this was the most desirable spot in the whole State, and after a nine years' residence he has not changed his opinion. As an evidence of his faith in Glendale it may be judged from the fact that he has bought $10,000 worth of property there in the past few months.

From a profitable standpoint it may be remarked that citrus fruits, berries and all kinds of vegetables are wonderfully abundant and full-flavored.

The dry air is also a big asset for anyone going into the business of raising chickens, pigeons or turkeys. Flocks of chickens were seen in splendid condition. The stability of the town itself is unquestioned. Business and building activity was marked on all sides. Carpenters, painters, bricklayers, laborers and graders were building a new community. An elegant depot, built by the Pacific

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY. Glendale, with better conditions and goods and driving a brisk trade. A newspaper is established, and there are two solid banks in existence. As an estimate or gauge of the amount of business being done, it was learned that the First National Bank of Glendale, organized and commenced business November 27 last, and now has on deposit $108,000.00, and has issued $25,000.00 in their own currency.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY. Glendale, with better conditions and far better scenery of mountain and vale, will in the course of time outstrip Hollywood as a residence section. Lots that were purchased in Hollywood a couple of years ago for a couple of hundred dollars, are now selling for thousands. This is bound to happen at Glendale. Better come out and see for yourself, and don't forget the Glendale Boulevard Tract is the cream of all residence sites. Call on the agents. No trouble to answer questions.

No better place in the universe could be selected for a home. With first-class transportation facilities, free city telephone connections, electricity for light and power, an abundance of pure mountain water—in fact, all conveniences of the city—with the advantage and charm of a country home.

A LIBERAL OFFER

The owners of this tract will present a fine home site of one-half acre on the tract, fronting the boulevard, including all street work, to anyone guaranteeing to start building an $8,000 home within sixty days.

An Elegant Depot, Built by the Pacific Electric Railroad, is Near Completion. It is in the Mission Style; Unique and Substantial.

Agents of the Glendale Boulevard Tract are located on the tract at Fourth Street and Brand Boulevard, Glendale and at Casa Verdugo (the romantic Spanish restaurant,) North Glendale. They will take great pleasure in showing prospective buyers this fine property.

SUBWAY FIGHT AT PITTSBURGH.

PHILADELPHIA COMPANY HEADS OFF ALL COMPETITORS.

Ordinance is Passed Postponing for Forty-five Years the Construction of an Electric Line by Any Other Means—Resolutions of Investigation Killed.

THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The public utilities corporation of Pittsburgh, known as the Philadelphia Company, tonight won its fight in the Common Councils to head off competitors against the subway, for which it expects to get a franchise. It was more than coincidence, perhaps, that there were present in the Council chamber, tonight, representatives of the United Railways Investment Company of San Francisco, who are here closing up a deal for the purchase of the Philadelphia Company. The ordinance passed tonight postpones for forty-five years the construction on Grant boulevard of an electric line by the Grant and Liberty Street Railway Company, or by any other company. The former company is the syndicate which obtained from the Council a franchise for an electric line. It is claimed that bribery and corruption were used to obtain this franchise. A suit, based on this allegation, is pending against the Grant and Liberty Street Railway Company in the United States Court, and an investigation of the charges has been demanded of the Councils.

A resolution authorizing such an investigation was killed tonight by the same majority which passed the ordinance postponing the operation of the franchise. The United States commission has decided that if the ordinance passed, the suit against the Grant and Liberty Street Railway Company must also be dropped.

The Philadelphia Company has won at every point, as the local Republican bosses said it would Saturday night. It purchased the franchise from the Grant and Liberty Street Company for $300,000. In other words, that sum represented what it has cost to save off for forty-five years competition from the subway which the Philadelphia Company will undoubtedly build and operate for the United Railways Investment Company of San Francisco.

So large a majority did the ordinance get tonight, that it went through like a shot, under the suspension of the rules. Only once did the cat get out of the bag sufficiently far to be seen. That was when Councilman Ronny enthusiastically declared that he favored the ordinance because, "in five years we will have an underground system from Grant boulevard to the East End."

Many of the Councilmen who voted against the measure a week ago, experienced a change of heart tonight.

Gov. Pades, yesterday honored a resolution from the Governor of Missouri for the return of Alfred W. Stryker, who is wanted in St. Louis to answer a charge of forgery. Stryker is under arrest in San Francisco.

Mr. Crawthorn declared that, acting on the representations of Commissioner of a great nation would not allow anything to happen to which any one could take exception. He further said that where figures and data came from unquestionable sources the oath was not necessary, but if anything came up in regard to the oath he would let us know.

NOT ALL FUN

Some Motorists Had to Work
Their Passages.
Bayley, Jr., Had Liveliest of Rides in White.
Warner's Drive Over a Bank
Below Elinore.

When the San Diego automobile tour was first announced, discussion was taken to point to the fact that such a jaunt would not prove a joke. Several weary and dust-begrimed wheel-twisters who sneaked into Los Angeles figuratively by the "back door" yesterday are in a position to give even more expert testimony on this subject than developed during the historic procedure for the wagon trial of "Wild Bill" Nevin for driving an automobile faster than two policemen thought he "ought" to.

William Bayley, Jr., and the White steamer in which he worked an arduous passage all the way from San Diego.

When the project was first announced, touring across country, climbing mountains, fording rivers and "pioneering" made across sandy wastes is more fun to read about than to do. Without exception the agents and professional drivers came through the wagon trial of the almost-pure amateurs had a tough trip, and at times entertained some doubts as to whether they would get home at all.

William Bayley, Jr., in his big White had a particularly strenuous journey, and worked his passage as a driver. In justice to the road locomotive he steered, it certainly wasn't the fault of the wagon, but the wheels handled by C. A. Hawkins, Capt. Ziegler and others came through with a record. Fellow-voyagers who joined in company with Bayley tell a number of funny incidents at his expense, ranging from showing the steamer up hills by primitive methods, to hanging on by eyelashes to keep from being over precipitous embankments. The kind of story that presides over motorists in general sat on Mr. Bayley's motor, however, and saw him through without loss of life or limb. He returned yesterday afternoon, and more enthusiastic tourist would be hard to find. The young man is game in all events, for he hasn't a word of complaint to offer.

Capt. Ziegler reported a first-class ride all the way in his White, and would not improve the course if he had ordered it. He found it just what he needed to be worth surrounding, and as pleased as any of the rest of the trip.

"Hard Luck Harry" Olive, whose motor began to stall at the Plaza Hotel, and who was a quarter mile from the hotel, came to a stop, and was as pleased as any of the rest of the trip.

That the succulent and active corbina does not leave this part of the world in winter is now established beyond question if any one of an observing mind has ever doubted it.

Respectable catches were made around Huntington Beach Sunday. A two-and-a-half-pounder was the largest "surf" reported, but small fry were sufficiently numerous, so that nearly everybody caught a nice mess.

Sport at other resorts was slow. Kingfish were the attraction in San Pedro harbor. The dredging has changed the character of the fishing at the resort, and anglers will have to learn the "croaker holes" anew when the spotfins begin biting again.

PUBLIC PICKS
ONE AT ASCOT.
OWNERS PUT THROUGH A COUP
ON HANDMAIDEN.

First Race Gives Bookmakers a Chance to Recoup Losses, as Tip for Once Comes Straight—Long Shot Takes the Money—"Non-winners" Have Their Innings.

Ascot owners have shown signs of a pretty good Masonic understanding on several occasions since the present meeting opened, and yesterday they called the turn on another coup of considerable proportions when, in the race for maiden fillies, first on the card, Handmaiden went over the line a winner, backed literally from soup to nuts, opening at fifteen and closing at eight to one, with the bookies just as well pleased not to take any more money on her. It was the traditional red-hot brick in fannel for the pencilers and several of them will dread the fire in future.

Montezuma, opening at ten and closing at twenty, was a fairly long shot to win the mile and a sixteenth event, but did it handsomely, and helped the layers out, for Red Damsel, the winner, ran up to the last half of her name and sold out the public miserably. Backed from three to 11 to 5, she finished far back in the race.

The card was largely of the "non-winner" character, and summarized as follows:

Four furlongs, maiden two-year-old fillies: Handmaiden, 112 (Aubuchon), 8 to 1, won; Queen of Night second, 10 to 1; third: time 1:04 1/2. Early Flower, Yellow Top, Poneman, Lady's Beauty, Shinko II, Donna Anna, Comilda, Mrs. Matthews, Malaper, Fire Away also ran.

Four-year-old non-winners, mile and a sixteenth, selling: Retador, 102 (McDuck), 7 to 2, won; Tom Riley second, 10 to 1; third: time 1:44 1/2. Joe Wheeler, Moor, Ding Dong, St. Wilda, John W. Danny, Myrtle H., La Tarnia, Probe, Ulloa, Lanark, Dancing Kid, Jr., also ran.

Five and a half furlongs: Dr. Hollis 97 (Morlarty), 3 to 2, won; Heater W. second, Beisy third; time 1:07 1/2. Lawsonian, Valencia, Parve also ran.

Four-year-old non-winners: Montezuma, 107 (Kent), 20 to 1, won; Pacheco second, Fyrro third; time 1:50. Exapo, Patsy Brown, Red Damsel, Fille d'Or, Gondouls also ran.

Mile and fifty yards, selling: Stoessel, 81 (Preston), 11 to 10, won; Northville second, Bologna third; time 1:45 1/2. Duffall also ran.

Six furlongs, selling: Moncie Mable, 91 (Preston), 8 to 1, won; Bantam second, Evelyn Griffin third; time 1:44 1/2. Lady Huron, April's Pride, Seed Cake, Lady King, Avontellus, Autara, Kumaya, Red Tape, Peter Parley also ran.

Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Under Physicians Six Months But Grew Worse—Some Said Face Would Be Marked for Life—Now Without a Blemish.

"As I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. In six months I had marked three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my feet so thick that I could hardly put a pin on me without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and then I got in my eye. I then went to another doctor. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did its work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was."

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever."

"I told all my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura can do. It is a sure cure for eczema. (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 641 Cherrier Place, Camden, N. J., April 25, 1905."

There is a personality about this store. You feel it, and believe in it, if you are familiar with the store. But the policy of pleasing people under all circumstances is not that of "bowing and scraping" to cajole a customer into a bad bargain, which cannot afterwards be righted. It is an attitude of assurance in the worth of the merchandise presented; an attitude of pleasantness, confidence, frankness, helpfulness, anxiety to please and satisfy in every particular.

Silk and Velvet Costumes $25 Actual Values $35 to $72.50

Trade conditions demand this apparently reckless price-cut; new goods are arriving daily; more room MUST be obtained at once.

So take your choice from these eighteen taffeta silk, moire, moire velour, velvet and panne velvet costumes and coat suits, at $25. One of the eighteen has until today borne a price tag of $72.50; three or four others were marked $65—not one whose equal we've ever sold in a regular way for less than $35—but that makes no difference now—choose at $25.

The velvets come in red, dark blue, reseda, Alice blue and plum shades; the silks are in shades of brown; two black taffetas; one moire velour is a beautiful gobelin blue; there are two moires in plum shade.

Description of all is impossible; a few follow:

Navy blue velvet costume; coat effect made over Baby Irish lace; full sleeves, elbow length; deep taffeta girdle with large gold buckle in front, smallest one back; trimmings of braided taffeta; full circular double-bounce skirt, with braided taffeta trimmings.

Black taffeta suit; short pleated jacket, with full pleated elbow sleeves and skirt made in full pleats.

Plum shade moire costume; full waist, made over linen yoke, with insertions of lace and Val. edging; elbow sleeves, finished with short cuffs; deep girdle of black taffeta; circular skirt.

The few cloth suits left from yesterday's sale will be offered today at ten dollars each; excellent values.

Ribbon Remnants at Half

You're always wanting odd pieces of ribbon for fancy work, dainty bows, hair ribbons and like purposes, and here's your chance to get the lengths best adapted to your needs, at half regular price. Plain and fancy ribbon—wide or narrow—half-yard pieces and longer.

Silks at Half Price

When you've a chance to buy seasonal plain and fancy silks at just half what they're worth, it isn't wise to wait—the women who appreciate the importance of such offerings are so numerous that the goods are usually snapped up in a jiffy. Lengths are here from one to ten yards.

Reductions in Lace and Fancy Hosiery We're through stock-taking in this department, and the odd lots that have developed are to be hurried out to some fortunate buyers like this:

Broken lines of black lace hosiery, of regular $2 quality, now $1.50; $1.50 quality for $1.15 a pair.

Black hose, embroidered in colors—$1.75 quality for $1.50; $1.25 quality for $1 a pair.

Tan hose in lace and embroidered designs—$1.50 quality $1.25; $1.25 quality $1, and $1 quality 75c a pair.

Staple lines of every worthy sort, in plain cottons and lises, at popular prices.

is right in style, and from your view point, worth its former price. But we will not have broken lines, so $1 for your choice from these new shirred and giraffe shapes, of taffeta silks in all colors, made with handsome buckles to match.

Gold and Silver Belts

Silver belts embroidered in silver and gold; gold belts embroidered in gold; gold and colored embroideries on gold or silver backgrounds with buckles to match; novelties shown here only, and those in greatest demand among Eastern style-followers.

Belting by the Yard

Three, four and five-inch widths in gold and silver belting—close or basket weaves; some moire effects and ombre shadings—75c to 85 a yard. Brocaded and plain gold belting in narrow widths, also.

New Ruchings

Showing gold hair line or dainty blue edges; nets and dotted effects; an infinite variety of new conceits at 25c, 35c and 50c.

Six different ruchings in a box at 55c and 50c.

$75 to $200 Robes Now $37.50 to $100

Robes of lace appliqued on net, spangled effects on net and fancy net dresses at $37.50 to $100, worth double. We don't care to retain these in stock for the spring season; let that explain an otherwise unreasonable reduction, for there's absolutely no other reason. The goods are perfect in every respect.

kerchiefs

Many women make a practice of buying unaltered Irish linen handkerchiefs, because they get superior quality at a modest price. Today 15c grades at 10c each, 55c for 10c.

Hdkfs. of sheer linen and linen cambric, 10c each, $1 a dozen.
